Annual Report – 2023-24

Education is the need of every era—undeniably so—but character is the fundamental element for peace and success in life in any era. The main purpose of education and human life is the cultivation of noble character. Education is the process that transforms a rough stone into a fine sculpture of character. A crucial aspect of shaping a child's life is nurturing creative ability. Many intellectuals throughout history have contributed creations that have adorned this world with greatness. Each student also carries a spark of creativity and possesses unique talents.
